

PRCC Maps Law Enforcement Plans

The Potter-Randall Citizens Committee recommended Tuesday afternoon that a central records department be established immediately by the four law enforcement agencies in Potter and Randall Counties and that the desirability of a Citizens Review Board be studied.

The recommendations were two of 24 presented to a joint meeting of the Amarillo and Canyon city commissions Tuesday by the PRCC's Crime Control Planning Committee.

The recommendations were included in a 60-page report requested by the commissions earlier this year.

The report is to be submitted to the State Criminal Justice

Council. The Council has been designated by former Gov. John Connally to administer the planning activities of the state under provisions of the Omnibus Crime Control and Safe Streets Act.

The Council asked various agencies within the state to participate in the provisions of the act.

In preparing the report, the PRCC committee worked closely with the Amarillo chapter of the National Council on Crime and Delinquency as well as all local law enforcement agencies.

Agencies included in the study were the Amarillo and Canyon Police Departments, the Potter and Randall Sheriff's offices, the West Texas State University security department as well as district and justice of the peace courts in both counties.

Nine areas were focused upon by the study committee: law enforcement, judicial, probation, news media, education, social activities, economics, religion and recreational.

In presenting the report to the commissions, W. S. Henderson, chairman of the committee, said crime increase, population increase and police manpower increase in the two counties have followed a break-even course from 1960-1968.

Crimes have increased by 20 per cent in the eight years, population has increased 22.1 per cent and manpower has increased 19 per cent.

He pointed to significant increases in the incidence of aggravated assault, burglary and larceny theft over $50 in the counties, and said increases in these areas have far exceeded population growth.

Henderson said a main aspect of the report is that a general lack of respect for law and order exists in the counties, but several of the committee's recommendations have direct bearing on that.

Other recommendations of the committee which have bearing in Canyon are as follows:

*A common radio frequency be placed in operation by all law enforcement agencies in the counties.

*Planning action to become part of the state-wide communications system and the National Crime Information Center be started immediately.

*Local law enforcement agencies inaugurate, via service clubs, programs designed to restore respect for the principles of law and order.

*Forman training in a Police Training Academy be established in facilities at Amarillo Air Force Base.

*Study of police regulations, including pay, be made.

*The community vigorously support and promote a constitutional amendment making legal training a prerequisite qualification for justices of the peace, county judges and corporation court justices.

*The local bar association study the bail bond system.

*House Bill 269, establishing an additional district court, be supported.

*That a Community Relations Board be established from members of the news media and the National Council on Crime and Delinquency, Amarillo chapter.

*The Canyon and Potter and Randall County school systems incorporate citizenship and law training programs into all 12 grades.

*West Texas State University take action to establish the third and fourth years of study leading to a bachelor's degree in police science by the fall semester of 1971.

*A study be made to determine the best use of the many capabilities of religious organizations in the fight to reduce the incidence of crime.

Henderson was asked by Mayor J. Ernest Stroud of Amarillo if the Citizens Review Board would be similar to those which have been controversial in other cities.

Henderson said the type board and its function would be up to the city commissions, that the committee made no recommendation on the type of board which should be established.

Henderson also said many law enforcement officers interviewed had low morale. He attributed this low morale to differences in pay scale and regulations occurring in the varied law enforcement agencies in the two counties.

In action following the meeting, the two commissions agreed to meet with Potter and Randall County Commissioners at 2 p.m. Wednesday at the Amarillo City Hall.

The four will discuss at that time which parts of the proposed report will be submitted to the State Criminal Justice Council and how much the entities will request in funds for implementing the program.

Wig Theft Charged

An Amarillo man has been charged with the alleged theft of some 165 wigs and several sets of false eyelashes.

Charged with felony theft is Jackie Joe Hooper, 28 years old, who gave his address as 3308 Wayne in Amarillo.

Assistant District Attorney Mike Hinton said the merchandise involved is valued at $1,742.01. It is alleged to have been taken from a parked van truck at 3314 Wayne some time between March 28 and March 31.

The merchandise is property of Wig Imports of Amarillo. Hinton said most of it was recovered.

"The fact that the wigs were made of imported human hair makes them so valuable," the assistant DA declared.

Auditorium May Go Says Shiver

An Amarillo architect told School Board members Tuesday night that because of spiraling construction costs it may be necessary to eliminate an auditorium from the plans for a new junior high school building.

Clayton Shiver of Shiver & Megert, architects charged with designing the proposed building, told board members his firm recommends the auditorium be left off the plans. He said, though, the auditorium could be added to the plans as an alternate when bids are let.

"These prices have escalated fantastically in the last 30 days," Shiver said.

But, the architect said the cost hikes would have little effect on prices for the proposed air conditioning of Rex Reeves Elementary School.

The board instructed Shiver to advertise for bids for the air conditioning project. Bids are to be let at 8 p.m. May 1 at the High School.

Shiver said the bids should

City Move Expected Tonight

The Canyon School Board voted Tuesday night to combine its tax office with that of the City of Canyon, following a recommendation presented by a joint study committee.

Bill Davis, study committee chairman, presented the committee's recommendation to the board.

The City Commission was also present at the meeting to hear the board action.

The study committee had previously requested that the board and commission meet Tuesday night, specifically to determine which agency would manage a combined tax office.

But, following lengthy discussion, no proposal was adopted as to which body will administer the office.

Mayor Paul Lindsey assured the board members that the City Commission will probably vote tonight to combine the offices.

A combination of the offices has been studied for several months at the request of both agencies.

Dr. W. J. Wooten, a member of the study committee, told the boards that "it is economically

REVAMP RESOLUTION

Commissioners court Monday tackled an amendment excluding utilities and commercial property onto a tax resolution passed by the court last week.

Last week the court passed a resolution reducing tax evaluations on dwellings in the county but increasing evaluations on all other property.

The effect of last week's resolution was to lower evaluations on dwellings about 3.66 percent and to raise on "all rural and city property" by about 13.33 percent.

"The commercial property and utilities are not to be affected by this motion as this type of property is to be considered at a later date," the amendment to the motion states.

This leaves rural property the only property so far to be raised in evaluation as a result of recommendations by a nine-man tax study committee which reported earlier this year.

Tax rates have not yet been set by the court. Currently the rate is $1.92 per $100 taxable valuation.

Grandma and I are completely "out of tune" with a grandson' envy of the astronauts on their trip to the moon.

by Troy Martin

FROM THE CANYON RIM

covered a religious panel discussion at West Texas State University Tuesday night and one of the panelists was H. M. Baggerly, editor of The Tulia Herald.

It was one of the rare occasions on which I found myself in agreement with the Tulia editor.

The discussion swung to what the posture of the church should be on the great moral issues of the day.

"What is the church?" Baggerly asked.

This is a question I have asked myself thousands of times.

In this country the church is loosely referred to by the press as embracing the entire Christian faith. This great conglomerate of religion is seldom in agreement enough on issues to put up a common front.

Baggerly contended that conviction is a personal thing and no group of church leaders should presume to speak for the individual member of a congregation.

The editor said about a church can do is to instill its teachings into its membership and let the members go in the world as individuals and measure their attitudes toward the great issues by the yardstick of their Christianity.

One youngster petulantly charged that the panel had served up only ambiguities.

He seemed angered that the panel was not able to produce some panacea for the ills of mankind. Buddha, Confucius and Jesus Christ gave the only rule for solving the great moral problems when they, at different times and places, said, roughly quoted, "Love thy neighbor as thyself."

Mankind has been ignoring this advice for thousands of years now and suffering agonies of the damned for having done so.

If this one rule were followed most of the ills of our race—including hunger, war and probably disease—would disappear overnight.

The Apostle Paul uttered some of the best psychological advice ever given when he declared, "In whatsoever state thou find thyself, therewith be content." There is no other formula for happiness.

Dr. James Carroll, pastor of Amarillo First Presbyterian Church, quoted from a wire service story describing Jesus Christ if he were to return to earth today.

The story described Jesus as a hippie type person, a drop out who turned his back on his family and wandered about the countryside engaging in civil disobedience.

If the New Testament has any credence this is not a true picture at all.

Christ was an artisan who worked faithfully by his father's side until he reached manhood. He was an expert carpenter.

The record says he held his parents in high esteem until the day of his death and admonished young people to: "Honor thy father and thy mother."

There is nothing to indicate a parallel between Christ and our modern unwashed long hairs who respect nothing and no one, not even themselves.

Also there is every indication that Christ was a law-abiding citizen who taught his disciples to "Yield unto Caesar that which is Caesar's and unto God that which is God's."

In fact, Christ was so innocent of the law that Pontius Pilate refused to have anything to do with the death of "this just man."

Pilate had a lot in common with some of our high officials of today. In allowing Jesus to be crucified because he feared the rabble, he bore a striking resemblance to those who, motivated by the same fear, allow our cities to be burned and our universities to be sacked.

Incidentally, the wire service story appeared in The Stars & Stripes, armed forces newspaper, and drew a sharp reprimand for its editors from the high brass.

The eyes of the cleanup committee are ever on us! Last Wednesday more checking was done around the lake homes to see who was getting out to win that color TV set, and the report is that many club members have cleaned up and/or started planting. The judges aren't looking for the biggest cash outlay - just the best effort and improvement. They describe their job as very tough because they want so much to be fair and so many people are doing things around their homes. So if you haven't started doing something yet - start now - and make their job even tougher!

Hugh Currie has put in many hours feeding two ponds full of small channel catfish which may be ready to put into the lake next fall. The lake was last stocked in October, 1968. "Van" Van Doren says they get the Channel Catfish when they are only 1" to 1 1/2" in length from the Department of Parks and Wildlife. Then it takes about a year on special fish pellets for them to reach 10" to 12", which is deemed big enough to survive in the lake without being devoured by larger fish. Hugh dug a third pond on his ranch this spring which Van was hoping to stock with Walleyed Pike, but the Department of Parks and Wildlife doesn't have any, and so far attempts to get them from other sources have been unsuccessful, so they may have to settle for something else - perhaps Bass. Although the Department of Parks and Wildlife has supplied a lot of know-how and fish, all of the work has been done by club members, especially Hugh Currie and the fish committee members, Sam Marmaduke, Bob Zelsman and "Van" Van Doren.

Rose bushes have suddenly sprouted along fences. Two hundred Paul Scarlet Ever-bloom Blazer Roses are being set out. These are a hardy type rose, and we should expect some flowers this summer. Laura McKenzie, age 10, enthusiastically dug in and planted 48 bushes herself.

Bill Reeves has turned his home over to Colonel Tony Curto for a leisurely two-week vacation. Tony is the commander of the Officers Training School at Lackland Air Force Base in San Antonio. Tony is counting on plenty of rest and some boating, and has been joining in the congenial gatherings at the clubhouse.

Bill Thompson is a new face at the clubhouse grill. He was associated with Dick Tinkham for five years at Hyatt House and is now the daytime cook at the club.

Saturday night the club dining room was taken over by Alpha Delta Pi from West Texas State University for their annual Black Diamond Dinner Dance. The evening included steak dinners for 150 people, dancing to The Intruders, and presentation of the pledges and sorority sweethearts. The sorority found our club a great place to entertain because the lovely decor made additional decorating unnecessary.

Letter To The Editor

To the people of Canyon,

I have wanted for some time now to make this notation to you, but never seemed to find the time. Now that I have come to have the time, the words seem to be missing. In essence I am writing to say that I certainly appreciate all of the courtesy and good company that I received during my three years in Canyon, not only as a citizen, but also as a member of the business community.

It is hard to believe that I moved to Canyon in the mere capacity of college freshman and left to join the Army the subject of many interests including becoming an enlightened member of society. Nowhere have I ever met so many wonderful people in such a short period of time. There seems to be a congenial aura resting over your wonderful community. You have beautiful geographical surroundings and an enhancing atmosphere of culture to match. I hope you will always live up to these adjectives so that everyone will grasp the same warmth and good will that I did. I'll always consider Canyon as my home away from home. I hope to always have time to visit while on leave from the Army. May God always bless and keep you all.

A friend forever.

Our World

BY ANN BROWN

Our federal government is "distressed" by current inflation! Do tell. That's like saying the moonshiners and bootleggers are distressed by the flow of untaxed liquor.

Inflation always appears when money and credit become more plentiful than goods and labor. And just who made money and credit so plentiful?

Before the government became all-powerful, and took over the management of every phase of our lives, the law of supply and demand kept our economy in fairly good balance. When money became more plentiful than goods and labor, people could slack off work or save their money. When goods and labor became more plentiful than money, production was reduced.

Now if a man can't find a job that pleases him, he can get on welfare. His welfare check may give him more money to spend than he had when he worked—and he certainly has more time to spend it. Under such a system there is no way for the economy to level off. So the economic balloon gets bigger and bigger until it bursts into a deadly depression.

People used to save their money during prosperous times to tide them over the economic slumps. That is no longer possible. The federal government takes it from the savers and gives it to the spenders.

The surtax we have just paid was a tax on our taxes. There was simply nothing else left to tax. This is supposed to curb inflation?

How can men who have doubled their own generous salaries out of the public purse convince even the most naive they are "distressed" about inflation?

Not satisfied with creating inflation in our own country, our give-away government has fouled up the economy of many other nations of the world.

In spite of our dangerous federal deficit that mounts yearly, we have sent almost 4 billion dollars to England during the past 20 years—where their poor live on a generous dole, and their rulers loll in luxury.

We have sent more than 3 billion to France, where we are thoroughly despised.

We sent more than 3 billion to India; almost 2 billion to Pakistan; 1 billion, 650 million to Italy; 1 billion, 625 million to Brazil; almost 3 billion to South Korea; almost 2 billion to Turkey; and more than 3 billion to South Vietnam.

Last week 2.5 million in foreign aid was approved for Sierra Leone—that is in addition to 11 million we have already sent them. And the average tax payer who works to earn the money that is offered so freely probably never heard of Sierra Leone, or dozens of lesser nations we pour billions of dollars into.

Nine million dollars has been appropriated to rebuild the riot-torn cities in our own country. The same savages who destroyed the buildings will probably be paid excellent wages--out of the taxpayer's purse--to rebuild them. (Any time a child is rewarded for throwing a tantrum he usually throws a bigger one the next time he wants something.)

Inflation is immoral; it eventually robs everybody—especially the white-collared workers, the retired, and the aged. Almost everyone wants to curb inflation—provided it does not lower his own income.

As long as we allow our government to take the earnings from the workers and give them to the wasters, inflation will continue to rob us. And what will we do when the inevitable depression comes?

Who is willing to send an urgent plea to his congressmen to strike at the cause of inflation--federal spending?

Going somewhere? Or been? The Canyon News wants to know about it--and so do its readers.

"Today's Busy Teens"

BY JOAN FOWLKES
Johnny Abbott is a teenager who looks to the future.

But he doesn't live in a future dream world---. He is keeping himself busy while preparing for it.

Johnny is an eighteen-year-old senior of Canyon High School and is classified as a student of the Vocational Office Education class. This means that he goes to school until 1:00 p.m. and then receives on duty training at his part-time job at TG&Y where he gets three school credits annually toward his graduation requirements.

His hours are usually from 4 to 8 p.m. but may be at work by 2:00 p.m. on some days when extra work warrants.

At TG&Y, Johnny is classified as a stockboy or general helper. John King, manager for the store, said that Johnny's job takes him through parts of just about every facet of the organization.

He has complete care of the tropical fish department where he must see that the tanks are kept clean and full of water at all times, and the fish fed properly.

He is also in charge of the glassware and hardware departments where he is responsible for keeping the merchandise ordered and the shelves stocked.

The stockroom activities and cleanliness of the store are also his responsibilities as well as running the register and seeing that the lights are turned out and the doors locked at night.

When Johnny was asked what he like most about his job, he did not hesitate to answer that he liked to be around people and liked the atmosphere of his employment.

Johnny's plans, after graduation from high school, are to earn his bachelor of arts degree from West Texas State University and then graduate work toward a degree in law at Texas Tech in Lubbock.

The possibilities of advancement in this type work are good from Johnny's standpoint if he could arrange his hours at the University to be compatible with the hours he would be needed at the store. Others have financed their college expenses by working for the firm and have earned up to position of assistant manager while going to school.

Hobbies? His is singing rock 'n roll music and playing the guitar. This is also a paying hobby as he sings and plays professionally for teenage dances in Canyon and the surrounding communities in the Texas and Oklahoma Panhandles.

Among his favorite sports are football and boxing. He said he enjoys sports as an observer rather than a participant but does like to swim.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Abbott and has one brother, Don, who is married and is a pharmaceutical student at WTSU.

He is a member of the First United Methodist Church of Canyon.

Here, Johnny Abbott is shown at one of the merchandise counters at TG&Y where he is employed as a general helper and stockboy. He has the complete responsibility of three departments plus general activities which involve him in nearly every facet of work at the store.

Teen-Night Set For CCC Youth

Principals Attend State Convention

Oscar Hinger and Luther Lawless, principals of Rex Reeves and Gene Howe Elementary schools, were in San Antonio April 8th through 11th to attend the Texas Elementary Principals Association Convention.

The theme for the four day seminar, "Guiding Today's Children For Tomorrow's World", was built around lectures, group assemblies, and exhibits. Over 1400 principals and supervisors were registered at the convention that was held at Convention Center.

As a part of the seminar, Hinger and Lawless attended the Robins Elementary School where they saw advanced classroom techniques in action.

At Robins school in San Antonio, the school building is called a "pod" where there are no partitions separating the classrooms, only room dividers and bookshelves. This school houses the 4th, 5th, and 6th grades.

The entire grade meets as one unit for the subject to be taught, then students separate into classroom size groups for individual help. The teachers are keyed to team teaching where each has her specialty and the others are helpers. All floors are carpeted and ceilings are covered with acoustic tile to keep down noise of classroom activities.

Hinger said that this part was particularly enlightening because Canyon's proposed Junior High School is being planned around this concept.

Fraternities Will Work Around City

Two fraternities at West Texas State University will perform city service projects in the near future, according to Paul Davis, city manager.

Phi Delta Theta, national social fraternity, will work with city employees Saturday to clean the area for the proposed city sewer plant. They will also clean papers and trash from along 23rd Street and from in front of Rex Reeves School.

The fraternity will improve the baseball diamond behind the elementary school, also. Kappa Alpha Order will paint curbs in the downtown area as a community service project. No date has been set for the work.

Representing the University Study Club, Mrs. T. G. Hull, Jr. presents a check for $50 to William B. Davis, president of the Little League Baseball program. With them are several of the Little League contenders. They are

19 Wrecks Investigated In Randall

Nineteen accidents were investigated by the Texas Department of Public Safety during March on rural roads in Randall County.

The accidents resulted in six injuries and property damage estimated at $13,140, according to Sgt. Jack Crowner, DPS supervisor for the area. For the first three months of 1969, Randall County rural roads have had 33 accidents resulting in eight injuries and property damage of about $18,570.

In the 31 Panhandle counties, six persons have been killed in 229 accidents which resulted in property damage of about $169,475.

Potter County had the most traffic accidents, recording 22 for March. Carson County was second with 21.

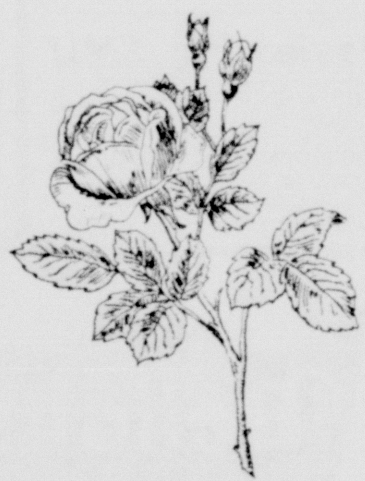

Persons were killed in accidents occurring in Carson, Deaf Smith, Hall, Oldham, Parmer and Potter counties.

Laymen Preach For Baptists

Two laymen of the First Baptist Church of Canyon will be in charge of services on Sunday in the absence of Rev. Strauss Atkinson, pastor, who is conducting a revival at Wildorado.

Speaking at the 11 a.m. service Sunday will be Dr. J. Edwin Low. Dr. Robert Splawn will conduct the evening worship at 7 p.m. Sunday.

Cecelia Morris Weds Dr. Oviedo

The ceremony was performed in the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harpie E. Morris of Chillicothe. The bridegroom is the son of Enriqueta de Oviedo of Tegucigalpa, Honduras and the late Santiago Oviedo.

As the bride descended from a winding staircase decorated with garlands of orange blossoms, she was met by her father and escorted to the setting for the nuptial vows which was a fireplace decorated with a large basket of pink carnations, fern and pink streamers. A crystal candelabra accented the fireplace mantel for the occasion.

Traditional music and selections of the bride were presented by the organist, Mrs. Dean Morris, and Mrs. Doyle Morris sang "The Wedding Prayer". Both are sisters-in-law of the bride.

The bride was attired in a gown of white silk crepe brought from Hong Kong by the bridegroom. The dress was an original fashioned by the bride's mother and Mrs. Buddy Perkins a cousin of the bride. Lace covered the front and hem of the gown and decorated the sleeves. Tiny seed pearls were sewn over the lace. Her bridal veil of tulle was accented with lace featuring lace roses over the veil. She carried a bouquet of white chrysanthemums and French mums atop a white leather Bible and her only jewelry was a strand of pearls, which were a gift from the bridegroom.

The traditional three tiered wedding cake was trimmed with pink roses and miniature wedding bells topped with a miniature bride and groom.

Serving were Vicki Morris, niece of the bride, and Mrs. Buddy Perkins, cousin of the bride. Guests were registered by Miss Suetta Lemon of Kermit.

Mid-East Topic Of AAUW Meeting

"The Middle East's Struggle to Enter the Twentieth Century" was the topic of a talk by Dr. James R. Underwood, Jr. at Saturday's meeting of the Canyon branch of the American Association of University Women at the home of Mrs. A. K. Goodman.

Dr. Underwood, associate professor of geology at West Texas State University, and his wife lived for three years in Baghdad, Iraq, where he was one of a group of American professors teaching in the University of Baghdad.

He said that the Arabic language, the Islamic religion and the Israeli issue are the ties that loosely bind together people in the countries extending from Morocco in North Africa to Iraq in the east. He cited the tribal heritage of the Arabs as an underlying reason for their inability to cooperate fully at the family and tribal levels and for their lack of cooperation at national and international levels.

Mrs. Cristler Crain, AAUW president, was in charge of the business meeting during which officers for next year were selected. Elected were Mrs. Duane Guy, president; Mrs. Rose Kinzer, first vice president in charge of membership; Mrs. George Blackwell, second vice president in charge of programs; Mrs. Bill R. Lee, secretary; and Mrs.

Emerson Haraden, treasurer. Assisting Mrs. Goodman were co-hostesses Mrs. Ada Crager, Mrs. Frank Kimbrough, Mrs. W. L. Smith and Mrs. Frank Dillard.

Mrs. James R. Underwood, Jr. was a branch guest.

Next meeting for the group will include a salad luncheon at the Charles Harter home. The meeting will be May 3.

Home Lighting Is Topic For HD Agent's Program

"Most homes have kept pace with electrical living in kitchens and laundries—but in too many homes the type of lighting equipment has not been improved through the years," says Becky Hall, Randall County Home Demonstration agent.

Mrs. Hall is this month giving a program to the ten county home demonstration clubs on the "home lighting" picture. Monday she gave a community-wide open program at the Farm Bureau Building on "window treatment".

"Today's table lamps and fixtures are both decorative and useful," said Mrs. Hall. "They are related to space, integrated with furnishings and planned to serve the changing activity."

The pleasure and satisfaction to be found in homemaking may be found in the following:

Sidewalk Art Sale Saturday
A garage sale and sidewalk art sale will be conducted Saturday by Kappa Pi, honorary art fraternity at West Texas State University.

Opening at 8:30 a.m., the sale will be held in the old First National Bank Building, just north of the downtown square.

Garage sale items will be featured in the building and student art works will be on display and for sale on the sidewalk in front of the building.

Proceeds from the project will go to the art fraternity's scholarship fund.

relate to the lighting, commented Mrs. Hall explaining that too little light causes accidents, the housewife becomes subconsciously annoyed and her annoyance rises to the level of consciousness if she stays in that room too long. The same is true of too much light, which gives the appearance of an excessively light photograph—glare rankles the nerves also.

"A major advance in lighting has been the development of the foot-candle measurement," said Mrs. Hall.

Erdman Honored

Loula Grace Erdman, author, will be honored Sunday and Monday on the publication of her 20th book "A Time to Write".

Miss Erdman, instructor and writer-in-residence at West Texas State University, will be honored Sunday with an informal reception from 4:30-6 p.m. at the Tascosa Country Club in Amarillo.

Miss Erdman and her publisher, S. Phelps Platt, president of Dodd, Mead & Company, will be honored at a dinner meeting at 6:30 p.m. with an address by Platt on the "Eastern Publishing Scene" as high-light at the club.

Monday Miss Erdman and her publisher will be present for autograph parties of the new Erdman book. The autograph parties are set for 2:30 to 3:30 p.m. at Blackburn's; 4-6 p.m. at Cooper and Melin; 7-9 p.m. at Brown's downtown store. All are located in Amarillo.

light (by a diffusing or reflector bowl and the inside color of the shade).

On lamp shades she said that "slanting sides will spread the light over a wider area than with straight sides. Distribution of light is reflected by a white or near white inside color of the shade."

"Shades should be at least 14-16 inches across the bottom on table lamps while 18-20 inches is better for the floor lamp measurement. Diffusing bowls or reflectors improve the quality of light and reduce reflection of shiny objects. Shades may be opaque or partly transparent, depending on suitability to decorations, but the bulb outline should not be seen.

"Walls and ceilings also play an effect on the lighting picture," said Mrs. Hall. "Rooms with dark-colored walls may need 3-4 times more light than rooms with light colored walls, ceilings and furnishings."

Lighting is affected by inadequate wiring, insufficient outlets, size of bulb, and several other points.

"A 100-watt bulb will give about 20 percent more light than four 25-watt bulbs and uses the same amount of current," according to Mrs. Hall. "Light-bulbs should be washed periodically for best effect."

In conclusion she said that "much research work in the field of lighting is yet to be done—for instance it is still unanswered how much extra light is needed for older eyes, and the best way to light roads for peak seeing efficiency."

4-H Food Show Set Saturday

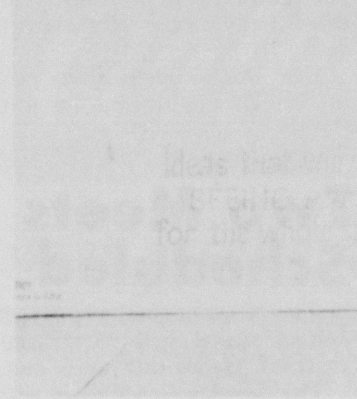

County 4-H Favorite Foods Show will be held Saturday at the Farm Bureau Building, according to Becky Hall, home demonstration agent.

4-H exhibitors should set up at 9 a.m.

The judging will begin at 9:30 a.m. with Mrs. Ruth Hughey of Armstrong County in charge.

Junior and senior divisions will be judged with entries slated in categories of meats, dairy products, fruit and vegetable, and bread and cereal groups.

Winners will advance to the district 4-H foods show in Amarillo April 26.

Becky Hall is displaying a flip chart she will use along with slides when presenting programs on home lighting to the ten home demonstration clubs of the area for the month of April.

Ways and means of improving the lighting at the least expense is the basis for the program which is titled "Improving Home Lighting."

Calvary Baptist Church library will observe National Library Week with an open house and library tea Sunday afternoon at the church building.

Bake Sale Saturday

Canyon Eastern Star will sponsor a bake sale Saturday beginning at 8:30 a.m. at Cooper's Market.

All types of cakes and pies will be available during the sale Saturday.

More than 900 books and numerous filmstrips, slides, pictures, maps, pamphlets and clippings are available in the church library, according to Mrs. Youngblood. She said there are over 17,330 known libraries operating in Southern Baptist churches today.

Working with Mrs. Youngblood as assistants in the library are Mrs. R. B. Richardson, Mrs. Connie Carter, Mrs. Ora Gaston, Mrs. Mable Stall and Mrs. Ruth Buchanan.

The reception hours will be 5-6 p.m., according to Mrs. Dub Youngblood, director of library services at the church. The public is invited for the occasion.

Kerbel Pleased With Varsity

Head Coach Joe Kerbel expressed confidence in the 1969 version of the West Texas State University Buffalo football team following the annual Varsity-Alumni game Saturday night.

Kerbel said possibly the only weak spot in the entire team at present is the defensive line, but he said work in the fall should stiffen the linemen.

The Buff varsity came on strong Saturday to give the Alumni, which included such former greats as Eugene "Mercury" Morris and Albie "OO" Owens, a good 42-8 beating before a crowd of about 2,000 persons.

The key to the varsity win was an attack which kept the Alumni off guard, an attack which mixed good running with the strong arm of quarterback Clarence Redic.

Duane Thomas was Redic's main messenger, as "The Train" roared to four touchdowns and 210 yards rushing. Thomas saw only limited action during the second half of play and caused all his damage in the initial go-round.

Although he is an outstanding passer, Redic attempted only four passes and completed one for 19 yards.

Kerbel said he was very pleased with Redic's performance as well as the quarterbacking of Eric Roanhaus and Ed Holwig.

Roanhaus attempted six passes and completed three for 40 yards.

The balance of the team, in both the running and passing departments, pleased Kerbel.

Bowlers Meet For Election

Canyon Men's Bowling Association will conduct an annual meeting Friday at 8 p.m. in the First National Room of the First National Bank.

Purpose of the meeting will be to elect officers and directors for the coming year.

All association members are urged to attend the session.

Two new halfbacks, Rocky Thompson, a junior college transfer, and Olan Thompson, showed good running ability in the Saturday action. Kerbel said both players will see much of the action next season. He also said Ramese Faleafino, a full back, looked good in the game.

Rocky Thompson carried the ball five times for 26 yards. Olan Thompson carried eight times for 11 yards and Faleafino carried six times for 18 yards.

Kerbel said the varsity team is strong in the defensive secondary, but weak in the line, with the loss of valuable linemen who will not return next season.

On the Alumni side Saturday night, the team ran head-on into insurmountable problems.

Morris, who broke three NCAA collegiate records last season, was stopped cold. He carried eight times, but amassed only 55 yards. Quarterback Roy Winters made the lone Alumni score on a 12-yard run.

Winters made 39 yards on 11 carries and Owens tallied 12 yards in nine carries. Winters attempted 33 passes, completing 14 for 188 yards. Thomas scored on runs of 62 yards, 22 yards, 80 yards

Elephant Hunt Tourney Held

An Elephant Hunt Tournament was held Sunday 6th at the Canyon City Club. This is where only two clubs can be used throughout nine holes of play. Each entry may choose any two clubs they wish.

Winner of the hunt was Ray Carnahan with a gross score of 39, second place went to Steve Self who came in with a 40, and third place went to Mike Shadix with a score of 41.

Sixteen members entered the tournament.

and six yards. Other varsity scorers were Faleafino from five yards out and Holwig from one yard out.

The game ended spring training for the Buffs.

WTSU Coed Accepted As Journeyman

A West Texas State University senior from Borger will be spending two years in Hong Kong after her graduation in June.

Ann Carson, a journalism major, has been employed for public relations work at Hong Kong Baptist College as a missionary journeyman for the Baptist Foreign Mission Board.

Miss Carson was notified of her selection for the position this week. She had applied in January.

After eight weeks of summer training she will travel to Hong Kong where she will assist in journalistic chores at the college.

"I picked it (Hong Kong) for the job rather than the country," Miss Carson said, "since public relations and journalism is what I'm qualified to do."

Miss Carson said she decided to join the journeyman program because "I thought it was a good way to put my degree to work and travel overseas."

She said she felt "maybe that's what God wanted me to do so I tried it and sure enough it was."

The missionary journeyman program is entering its fifth year of giving Baptist youths opportunities to work in missions throughout the world.

Miss Carson was one of 76 students chosen for the program this year.

"A terrific movie"

—just right for Steve McQueen. Fast, well-acted, written the way people talk, it is dense with detail about the way things work.

McQueen embodies his special kind of aware, existential cool—less taut and hardshell than Bogart, less lost and adrift than Mastroianni, a little of both!

STEVE MCQUEEN AS "BULLITT"

One of the best movies I've seen this year...has the most exciting fifteen minutes of cinema I've seen in I don't know how long.

Edge-of-the-seat tension and super-cool performance by Steve McQueen.

A tight, uncluttered movie, as direct and convincing as a punch in the mouth.

Whatever you may have heard about the auto chase in Bullitt is probably true....a terrifying, deafening shocker.

BULLITT is a winner. It fastens your seat belt right from the start. This is a super-movie.

Crime Flick with a Taste of Genius... An action sequence that must be compared with the best in film history.

Six Panelists At WTSU Speak On Church Role

Six panelists at West Texas State University Tuesday night agreed that the role of the church has changed in the past decade but were not entirely in agreement as to what the role should be.

Rev. Arthur Preisinger, Lutheran Campus Minister at Texas Tech, expressed the opinion that members of the church should not be objects of ministry but instead the church should prepare them to minister to others.

"I've been ashamed because of the lack of leadership of my church in doing the Christian thing and instead letting other groups in the community take the leadership," said Mrs. R. L. Robinson, Amarillo, a church worker in the First Christian Church.

"Church members should not be ministered to but should minister," she went on. "We

(Continued from Page 1) Commissioners rejected a tax evaluation schedule recommended by County Tax Assessor-Collector Audrey Bruse. Mrs. Bruse recommended that evaluations on cattle, unregistered horses and some hogs be lowered.

Raises were recommended for registered horses and sheep but hens were singled out for the biggest increase. The tax office suggested that these be raised from 33 cents to 90 cents.

"I can't see lowering the evaluation on cattle when cattle are going up," declared Commissioner Clarence Beckman.

The livestock valuation schedule will remain the same as last year.

Commissioners turned thumbs down on a request by the State Department of Public Welfare for two hours to be scheduled for department representatives to explain to commissioners why Randall County should participate in the federal food stamp program.

"We have one family in the county on welfare," said County Judge Carroll Brown. "I told them (the welfare representatives) that I didn't think we'd be interested."

The court agreed to purchase a spare pump for temperature control of the court house.

Commissioners also agreed to purchase 32 rose bushes for beautification of the court house area.

The court offered to lease office space for Canyon Independent School tax office to the school for $125 a month. The school tax office currently is located on the ground floor of the main court house building and is being given office space rent free by the county.

The court decided to begin charging rent when the school asked for additional space.

Auditorium...

School Superintendent Jerry Jacobs opposed any plans by Shiver to do away with the auditorium for the proposed junior high.

Jacobs said the auditorium is a vital part of the instructional program at the junior high, that there is no other place in the proposed building where the functions which were planned for the auditorium could be carried out.

He said the auditorium was to be integral to the team-teaching phase of the proposed school curriculum.

"I'm not going to say we couldn't operate without it," he said, "but, it would cause us to have to redesign some of our program."

Shiver said plans for the junior high are nearing completion and should be ready for presentation to the board in six weeks or two months.

The board took no action on Shiver's recommendation for elimination of the auditorium.

J. O. Parker was named president of the School Board, to succeed Jerry LaGrone. Joe Gill was elected to serve as vice president, LaGrone was named secretary and newly-elected Dr. Dudley Moore was named associate secretary. All were selected by acclamation.

In other action, the board asked School Tax Assessor-Collector Conway Kuykendall to contact Fred Begert, Earl Marrs and Tom Black to serve on the board of equalization. Alternate possibilities to be contacted include Dick Daugherty, George Blackwell, Bill Patky, and Kenneth Erwin.

The board also reemployed for next year Mrs. Margie Phillips and Mrs. Barbara Kirk at teaching positions at Gene Howe Elementary School, and Mrs. Anna Lee Auvenshine.

In other business, Dr. Moore and Walter Graham were sworn into office. The two were elected recently to serve three-year terms on the board. The swearing in followed a canvass of the votes cast in the election.

News Brief

Mrs. Marvin Neeley and son, Kerry Rogers, were visiting in the home of her mother, Mrs. Earl E. Miller, Saturday morning.

Kerry remained in Canyon for the week end with his father, Donnie Rogers, and family.

Hales. The district dairy farming award went to Mike Henders.

Two other FFA members were named outstanding cooperative education students with the award to feedlot employees going to Bill Hardaway and the farm machinery award to Mike Branum. The cooperative program allows for students to receive on-job training in various fields of agriculture.

Miss Susan Booth, sweetheart for the CHS chapter of FFA, was entered in the queen's contest at the district meeting.

Approved at the district meeting were applications for two Lone Star Farmer degrees and two American Farmer degrees. The applications will now be advanced to the area check-out, according to Marcus Phillips, vo-ag instructor.

Applications for Lone Star Farmer degrees were approved for Mike Breitling and Ralph Batenhorst. The American Farmer degree application approvals went to Bob Gruner and Doug Breitling.

District award winners will be entered in events at the area convention to be held May 9 at Palo Duro High School. Winners at the area level will receive awards and be advanced to state competition.

Twelve FFA members attended the district session Monday along with Phillips and James Walker, vo-ag instructors.

first time in more than 20 years that a national president of any WTSU fraternal organization has visited the campus.

Cahill was elected in August for a three year term. As well as being an attorney, he is a member of the board of directors of Big Brothers Association of Los Angeles County, the Los Angeles Central Committee, and the Men's Advisory Board to the League of Women Voters.

Mayor Paul Lindsey has proclaimed next Friday as Alpha Kappa Psi Day in Canyon and Major J. Ernest Stroud has likewise declared Thursday the fraternity's day in Amarillo.

Cahill is expected to arrive in Amarillo about 2 p.m. Thursday. He will take an air tour of the Panhandle area that afternoon as well as tour the University Complex South at WTSU and the university's computer center.

The local chapter will initiate Virgil Patterson, chairman of the board of First National Bank in Amarillo and president of Boys Ranch, as its first honorary member Thursday.

A professional dinner will be at 8 p.m. Thursday at the Villa Inn Motel in Amarillo. Cahill will be featured speaker at the banquet.

The president will confer with Dr. T. Paige Carruth, dean of student life at WTSU, and Dr. James P. Cornette, university president, during the day Friday. He will meet at 12:15 p.m. for lunch with the mayors of Canyon and Amarillo and representatives of the two cities' chambers of commerce.

He is expected to leave Amarillo about 2:15 p.m. Friday for Chicago.

Fifty students and 18 faculty members are now members of the WTSU chapter of AK Psi. The local chapter was chartered in 1959.

feasible to have one office and much more convenient to the taxpayer to pay at one office."

Wooten also pointed out that most of the cities listed as having a combined tax office in the state were managed by the City Commission.

But, J. O. Parker, new president of the School Board and member of the committee also, said the school district covers a greater number of persons not only within, but without the city limits of Canyon and should manage the office.

School Superintendent Jerry Jacobs stressed that if a combination of the two offices is to be effected, it should be done quickly so the combination can be used to compute tax rolls before Oct. 1.

Wesley Cox moved the two offices be combined "as soon as possible and providing we can reach a contract agreement."

The study committee, which consists of three men from the School Board, three from the City Commission and three laymen, was also asked by the two groups to remain active and to work out the mechanics of a combination.

International Rochester Physicist Will Lecture At WTSU Friday

The society of Sigma Xi, West Texas State Geological society, will present Dr. Robert E. Marshak, University of Rochester physicist, in their annual "Distinguished Lecture" on Friday.

The lecture will be held at 7:30 p.m. in room 101 of the University Complex South on campus. The meeting is open to the public.

Dr. Marshak will speak on "The Fourth Force of Nature". He has been with the University of Rochester faculty since 1939 and has served as chairman of the physics department from 1950-64, when he was named Distinguished University Professor and returned to fulltime research.

Internationally recognized for his achievements as a high-energy physicist, Dr. Marshak is a leader in the development of worldwide scientific cooperation. He headed scientific delegations to Poland in 1964 and Yugoslavia in 1965 and testified on the state of high-energy physics in the U.S.S.R. before the joint congressional committee on Atomic Energy last March. He attended four conferences in the Soviet Union and initiated the International Conference on High Energy Physics which was first held at the University of Rochester and is now alternated between Rochester, Geneva and the U. S. S. R.

He was recently elected to the Council of the American Physical Society and also serves as chairman of the visiting committee for the physics department at Brookhaven National Laboratory.

Dr. Marshak has twice held the Guggenheim Fellowship and was named the first Nile Bohn visiting professor at the Institute of Mathematical Sciences in India and has been a member of the Institute for Advanced Study, Princeton, New Jersey. He was a deputy group leader at Los Alamos during the war and was chairman of the Federation of American Scientists in 1947-48. He served as expert consultant to the International Atomic Energy Agency on the establishment of an international center for research in theoretical physics from 1961-63.

Dean Comments On Nixon Statement

Dr. T. Paige Carruth had some comment on a recent presidential statement on college unrest.

"Intellectual freedom is in danger in America. Violence is on its way to being accepted," said President Nixon in a recent statement expressing the views of his administration concerning campus unrest.

The President's statement was in defense of a law enacted by the 90th Congress. The law provided for the withdrawal of various forms of federal support to students found guilty of violation of criminal statutes in connection with campus disorders.

In defending the law, he said, "It is one of the oldest practices of universities and colleges that privileges of various kinds are withdrawn from students judged to have violated the rules and regulations of their institution. Congress has done no more than to withdraw federal assistance from those students judged, not by university regulations, but by courts of law, to have violated criminal statutes."

"The singular fact of American society—the fact which very likely distinguishes us most markedly from any other nation on earth, is that...we have created the largest, most democratic, most open system of higher learning in history. None need fear the continued action of these principles, but all must dread their erosion," he warned.

He also noted that violence or the threat of violence cannot be permitted to influence campus life, because when it does, the community ceases to be a university.

Continuing, Mr. Nixon asked for institutional self-examination as a basis for reform, saying that merely reasserting the principles of academic freedom, while ignoring the issues that are foremost in the minds of the students is slothful, dishonest, and in the end, futile.

"This administration will always be receptive to suggestions for constructive reform," he said.

Dr. T. Paige Carruth, dean of student life at West Texas State University, has commented on student unrest at WTSU in this way. "We have processes here that make it permissible for people who have points they wish to make known in the rational peaceful manner to do so. Free speech is allowed through peaceful demonstrations or disruptions because there is not much to demonstrate about. Justifiable issues for demonstrations are totally lacking here."

He pointed out, however, that there would be no delay in dealing with disruptive students, should the need arise. "Any student convicted of disruption on campus," he said, "would not, I feel sure, retain student status."

Rainbows Entertain Top Guest

Patsy Kempson of Dumas, grand worthy advisor for Texas Order of the Rainbow Girls, paid an official visit to Canyon Rainbow Girls Monday night.

The stop in Canyon preceded a tour of Texas for Miss Kempson. While here, Miss Kempson was entertained with a barbecue hamburger supper following the theme of the outdoor drama "TEXAS".

During the supper, Gary Moore presented appropriate musical selections. Canyon Rainbows serving the supper were dressed in old fashioned gowns for the occasion.

About 80 attended the affair. Special guests were D'Lynne Bellah of Canyon, grand religion; Mrs. Cortez Dowlen of Canyon, grand visitor; and the worthy advisor of Hereford Rainbow Assembly, Vicki Brownlow, along with other members of the Rainbow Girls from Hereford.

Following the meal, Miss Susan Hayes, worthy advisor of the Canyon Rainbow Assembly, conducted a brief business meeting.

Are you a Mutual Fund Snob?

All funds differ in price and there is no guarantee their objectives will be met.

If you think Mutual Funds have no place in a sophisticated investor's portfolio, you may be passing up some of the best decision-making on Wall Street—the carefully-thought-out investing done by fund managers. In 1940 a handful of Funds managed $500 million. Today over 400 Funds manage over $50 billion. It would be naive to think that this burgeoning activity can be ascribed solely to small investors and newcomers to the stock market. Evidence clearly indicates that individuals and a wide variety of institutions are using Mutual Funds as a major element in their investment programs.

Are you a serious investor who would appreciate some objective thoughts concerning Funds, their performance, how to use them in creating an estate, or to educate a family?

On the dates and places shown below, we will hold an investment program for the benefit of institutional and private investors. Won't you join us?
